

EXPECTING THE JOINT COMMISSION SURVEY?

DON'T RISK YOUR ACCREDITATION STATUS

We believe in partnering with Healthcare Organizations to bring them to successful resolutions with challenges they are facing. The process of Accreditation for a Healthcare Organization can be rough seas to navigate. Our team of Clinical and Non-Clinical Healthcare Advisors, can help your leadership prepare for a survey or for overcoming the daunting task of a non-compliance list.

The BGI Team is your dedicated partner in assessing needs, creating workflows, managing change and supporting the roll out of compliance changes at your individual sites.

The #1 Standard missed by hospitals in Joint Commission Surveys was record of care, treatment & services.

ABOUT US

Broadwell Group is a full-service consulting firm, founded in 2001. We have experience working with small, medium and large companies, including a broad range of healthcare providers, hospitals, payors, and public and non-for-profit companies. We are committed to delivering bottom-line results for your business.

BGI works with companies to develop solutions that are designed to improve cash flow, operations and margin/income. Our teams have a bias for action and are structured to be accessible and flexible based on client needs. Our typical engagement focuses on analyzing difficult issues that are frequently intertwined and developing solutions and strategies for improving the business. We typically begin with assessment research, then develop a prioritized roadmap and see it through to implementation.
